A photograph for a Dolce & Gabbana advertisement. On the left, a man with a grey beard and glasses, wearing a black chef's hat and a black button-down shirt, holds a small, light-colored model of the Colosseum. On the right, a younger man with brown hair and glasses, wearing a dark blue polo shirt with a small crown logo on the chest, smiles and gestures with his hands. He is wearing a watch on his left wrist. They are seated at a polished, light-colored wooden table. On the table, there are two small, light-colored statues: one of a dog and one of a classical figure. The background features a wall with a patterned curtain and a plant with pink flowers. The text 'DOLCE & GABBANA' is printed in large, white, serif capital letters across the bottom of the image, with the hashtag '#ITALIAISLOVE' in smaller white capital letters below it. A vertical watermark 'DOLCEGABBANAWEAR.COM' is visible on the left side of the image.

A man with curly brown hair, wearing a blue polo shirt with a small crown logo on the chest and dark sunglasses, is smiling broadly while holding a newspaper. He is seated at a round, polished wooden table. In the background, a woman with dark hair, wearing a colorful floral top, is also smiling. The setting appears to be an outdoor cafe or terrace with a string of lights and greenery in the background. The text 'DOLCE & GABBANA' is prominently displayed at the bottom of the image, with the hashtag '#ITALIAISLOVE' underneath it. A vertical watermark 'DOLCEGABBANAWEAR.COM' is visible on the left side of the image.

Domenico Dolce e Stefano Gabbana guardaram o melhor evento de sua linha de Alta Sartoria para a Sicília, terra natal do primeiro. Realizado em julho na praça vizinha à embasbacante catedral e ao precioso monastério Chiostro dei Benedettini, em Monreale, nos arredores de Palermo, o desfile foi grandioso, como de costume, com impressionante riqueza, diversidade de estilos e fidelidade à história da região. E, para entender a coleção dos designers, é preciso aprofundar-se nas raízes sicilianas e na riqueza de seus monumentos. As influências árabes, normandas, gregas, venezianas e bizantinas convivem em plena harmonia nos 6.500m² de mosaicos presentes na catedral construída no século 12. Foram usadas mais de 2t de ouro na decoração encomendada pelo então rei da Sicília, William II. O jovem de 20 anos mandou vir arquitetos dos quatro cantos do planeta para materializar o pedido que a Virgem Maria lhe fez durante um sonho. Sabiamente, Domenico e Stefano convidaram o público a visitar a catedral antes de tomar os assentos para a apresentação.

Para a dupla de designers, as roupas funcionaram como uma catedral, uma tela em branco na qual eles exercitaram a riqueza de bordados sacros e construíram mosaicos com clara referência a figuras santas presentes no histórico edifício. Túnica, caftãs e robes opulentos fizeram companhia à impecável (e exuberante) alfaiataria – em costumes de jacquard ou de tecido brocado –, pijamas outdoor, blazers e polos de couro de crocodilo, bombers cobertos de paetês, camisas estampadas com paisagens locais, smokings floridos... O repertório de 116 entradas teve efeito similar ao que o Duomo local causou nos mais de 400 convidados. Boquiaberta com tamanha beleza, a clientela russa, árabe, indiana e brasileira, entre outras, aplaudiu o show de pé e tratou de marcar hora na manhã seguinte, no showroom armado no hotel Villa Igiea, para arrematar as preciosas roupas. Praticamente todos os looks do desfile estavam vendidos ou encomendados 24 horas depois. “Esta é uma coleção sobre história. Stefano e eu acreditamos que o que precisamos também na moda, hoje, é uma visão sobre beleza”, resumiu Domenico. GG
